

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

RELIGIOUS.

Old Swedes' Church (Gloria Dei), situated on Swanston street, below Christian, is the oldest place of public worship in Philadelphia. During a long period of 170 years this church has been blessed first by a long line of missionaries sent over by the church of Sweden, and subsequently by ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church, by whom it is now held. The interior of the church has been more or less altered at different times, but the exterior presents the same appearance as when first erected.

Oxford Presbyterian Church. This beautiful edifice, on North Broad street, will be completed in about 15 days. The pews will be sold on Wednesday evening. Rev. Frank S. Robbins, pastor.

Ons and Ends.—Almost every available cellar in our city is being occupied by the wine and liquors of the season. The back windows of our private residences present a fair appearance.

The little girl who was working actively in the city, several weeks since, has been found in the hospital during the past three days.

Rev. C. J. H. Carter, acting bishop, has issued a circular of instruction to the clergy of the Catholic church in reference to Thanksgiving Day.

The Y. M. C. A. of the Tenth Baptist Church holds its third anniversary meeting to-morrow evening.

The Pennsylvania Anti-Slavery Society holds its annual meeting on the 17th inst. Lucretia Mott will be present.

The Park Commission has issued an edict against the sale of liquor of any kind within the Park limits.

The British frigate Augusta, after laying imbedded in the channel of the Delaware for ninety-five years, has been raised, and a number of relics found, amongst others three human skulls.

Highway Robbery.—At a late hour last night a citizen residing in the neighborhood of Seventh and Diamond streets, passing along Ninth street, near Locust, was attacked by a party of men who knocked him down and took from him all his valuables and money.

INTERESTING SUNDAY-SCHOOL EXERCISES.—On Wednesday evening last the lecture-room of the Second Reformed Church, Seventh and Locust streets, was filled with an intelligent audience, for the purpose of engaging in the exercises pertaining to the presentation made on that occasion to the late superintendent of the Sunday-school, Dr. W. C. Moore.

RECAPTURE OF SWENEY.—At an early hour this morning some officers of the 11th street saw a man scale the wall of the yard of the house No. 413 S. Ninth street, and following his example they arrested him.

THE MORTALITY OF THE CITY.—The number of deaths in the city for the week ending on to-day was 257, being an increase of 7 over the corresponding period of last year.

SCHEENCK'S COLUMN.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED.

READ THE EVIDENCE.

"Facts are stubborn things, and it is to facts alone that it is desired to direct the attention of the readers of this article. Many years of severe and thorough practical trial have demonstrated beyond peradventure of a doubt the fact that the medicines prepared by me, and known as SCHEENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, SCHEENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC, and SCHEENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, have proved extraordinarily successful in the cure of diseases of the Pulmonary organs, or what is usually termed CONSUMPTION.

I am fully aware that there are many persons whose prejudices run so completely that "proofs strong as Holy Writ" would fail to convince them of the efficacy of my remedies; and that there are others who, under no circumstances, could be prevailed upon to admit their merits, simply because such an admission would prove detrimental to their particular personal interests.

Fortunately for the welfare of mankind, these doubting people form a comparatively small portion of the community at large. They are to be found here and there, but comparatively few. The great mass of the world's population, their numbers are so small that I dismiss them, and address myself to those who are willing to listen to the dictates of reason, and who are disposed to admit the truth of my remedies.

It is a well known fact that Consumption, the scourge of the American people, is incurable; that a man whose lungs are diseased must be given over to die; that he must abandon hope; and that the arrangement of his temporal as well as spiritual affairs should claim his earliest attention.

Now, be it remembered, all these wonderful changes were wrought by the use of the medicines I prepare—MANDRAKE PILLS, SEAWEED TONIC, and PULMONIC SYRUP. A cure seemingly so miraculous naturally created astonishment in the minds of those who knew me.

THE READER REMEMBER THAT THERE ARE NOT mere fancied statements. They are positive living facts of which I am the living evidence. There is an old adage which says, "What has been done may be done." I have been completely cured by the medicines I recommend, and I desire to have their merits examined. Thousands of others have testified to similar happy results from their use, and thousands of others still might be benefited as I have been could they but be prevailed upon to try the virtues of the Mandrake Pills, Seaweed Tonic, and Pulmonic Syrup.

Free Trade. St. Louis, Nov. 12.—J. R. Stebbins, of Detroit, denies making the assertion as charged by Professor Perry in his speech on Monday night, that free trade had reduced the cost of the population to pauperism. He says he is quoted from the New York Times, and he did not make the statement on his own authority.

The National Land Company. The sales of the National Land Company for the past year, consisting of lands along the Kansas Pacific Railroad, amounted to 14,541 acres, holding $24,234. Of these lands, 21,000 acres on the Kansas Pacific Railroad were bought by a colony of 1000 English families, who founded the village of Washfield, Kansas, and near there established an agricultural college and school for the reception and education of orphan boys from London.

FROM NEW YORK. Despatch to the Evening Telegraph. New York, Nov. 12.—A boy named William H. West, about five years of age, was run over by a cart in William street, the wheels passing over his head and instantly killing him. The driver was arrested.

THE NATIONAL DISEASE.

THE WEST.

FROM THE WEST.

What is it, and what will cure it? It is a fact that will not be controverted that Dyspepsia is a national disease, to be found from the Presidential mansion to the humble cottage along the marshes of the Atlantic. Symptoms.—There are scarcely two cases of Dyspepsia alike. The symptoms vary. In one case they may be cold hands and feet, oppressive soreness and pain in the pit of the stomach, drowsiness after meals.

Free Trade. St. Louis, Nov. 12.—J. R. Stebbins, of Detroit, denies making the assertion as charged by Professor Perry in his speech on Monday night, that free trade had reduced the cost of the population to pauperism.
